

The fact that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its 62 stations to air an anti Kerry video in prime time is outrageous and probably illegal. This is not how things should be done in a democracy. Since they are broadcasting free of charge they should be serving the communities they're in- not promoting falsehoods in a totally partisan way. The licensing laws need to be strengthened. Thank you, Terry Loveton